RE: 2022 New Leaders In Banking Award Recipients

The Connecticut Bankers Association asked our member banks to nominate individuals that they believe are “New Leaders In Banking”. Nominees needed to work at a CBA member bank in good standing, be an outstanding employee, manager, or business leader and make a notable impact within their bank and community.

We received dozens of nominations, which were vetted by an independent panel of judges, none of whom are active bankers. We are pleased to inform membership that, after substantial review, the following thirteen individuals were chosen as this year’s “New Leaders In Banking”. Congratulations to all of this year’s winners on this honor!

Kelly Allard	Chelsea Groton Bank
Jean McGran	Chelsea Groton Bank
